

Pilinet Press News August 2008

News:

Send Pictures: We are starting a new feature on our webpage – and the feature is YOU!! Send us your pictures of you with a Pilinet Press book. Examples are Grandma reading a story from “Webb’s Wondrous Tales” to granddaughter, a classroom scene with students acting out one of the stories, or Dad reading a night-night story; we’d like to share these moments with our readers. You can send your jpeg files via e-mail or a print photograph to our regular mail address (address in signature block). We will post pictures of Pilinet Press readers enjoying their favorite story. For the protection of young readers, only initials will identify people in the photograph. By sending us a file, you are granting us permission to post the photo to the Pilinet Press website. Webpage coming soon!!

New Book in the Works: Our next book is back from the editors! We are working hard to complete a new book titled “Seoul-Full Letters”. A humorous look at the adventures of a military spouse stationed overseas in South Korea, “Seoul-Full Letters” also shares Korean recipes, proverbs, and cultural tips. You can even learn to say a few polite phrases in Korean! This will be the first book in our Humor category and is intended for our adult readers. Look for a release announcement this fall.

New Reference Desk Material: Find new free articles on the Reference Desk feature on the www.pilinetpress.com website. Free teaching aids for parents and teachers are also available. We continue to expand our article section to include more articles on vocabulary development, spelling help, and other reading-related skills. The most recent addition to our articles is:
